Albert J. Edge, of Philadelphia, is suing George E. Wheeler, also of that city, for $10,000 damages for making love to Mrs. Edge. With both Edges against George we fear that he will have his comb cut.

President Eliot, of Harvard, says: "A gentleman must be quiet." Well if he is attending to the one who is giving a good imitation of the similarity of quietude at Oyster Bay, we agree that it is absolutely necessary to make him keep quiet from now on.

We regret to hear whisperings about some of the very best men of Wilmington. However, a man need not expect any consideration when he still thinks there is something in a last year's birdsnest, made manifest by persisting in wearing a straw hat while his coat is buttoned clean up to his throat.

The Democrats of New York are vigorously attacking Governor-Chairman Odell's record as to the unconstitutional beet-sugar bounty in his State. If he can't defend his record his chief reliance will be upon the fact that it will be mighty hard for the Democrats to beat sugar in this campaign.

The citizens of Wilkesbarre, Pa., paid the Pennsylvania railroad $30,000 for a dam across the Susquehanna river. The dam will be removed, as it has caused $2,000,000 damage in two years. The railroad company insisted on being paid, and wouldn't even give a dam for the good of the town.

The Earl of Roslyn, an English nobleman, is financially embarrassed. "Engagement off" was a cablegram which he received the other day from Mrs. Cornelia Baxter Tevis, a Denver beauty worth a fortune of $4,000,000. Wouldn't it jar you to get loosened up from bright prospects of wealth like that!

One of the fool fads introduced in the Northern colleges is the "cane rush," a wild, rough scramble for canes. In a mix up between girls and young men at a Pennsylvania college the other day one of the men was fatally injured. There are other places on the death line besides that of chaffeur in an automobile race.

Trust busting fund placed in Roosevelt's hands by Congress, $500,000. Amount spent in 591 days, $25,000. Balance on hand October 9, $475,000. Number of trusts busted in their attempt to keep from laughing, the whole bunch. Asset value of Roosevelt's trust busting record, 5 cents on the dollar. Turn out the footlights, the show's all over.

CLARKTON HORROR.

Negroes Charged With Brutal Murder and Outrage Again in Bladen County.

THEIR TRIAL TO-MORROW.

All is Quiet in Elizabethtown—Court Convened There Yesterday—Sellars and Brown Brought from Raleigh Via Fayetteville and Garland.

[Special Star Telegram.]

ELIZABETHTOWN, N. C., Oct. 10.—Judge G. W. Ward, of Elizabeth City, opened court here to-day. Though this is his first term on the bench, he has created a splendid impression and his charge to the grand jury was excellent. The prisoners, Sellers and Brown, charged with outraging and murdering Mrs. George H. Packer, at Clarkton, will arrive here some time late to-night, coming via Fayetteville and Garland. The grand jury has not yet returned a bill against them, as there are yet a number of witnesses to be examined. However, a true bill is expected to be returned in the morning, when counsel will be appointed by Judge Ward to defend them, as they have no counsel.

The trial will not begin before Wednesday as a special venire of one hundred or more will probably be ordered to-morrow from which to select a jury.

R. S. White, Esq., of Elizabethtown, will assist Solicitor Lyon in the prosecution. There was a tremendous crowd here to-day but no excitement.

The negroes Dave Brown and Neill Sellers, charged with the murder of and horrible outrage upon Mrs. George S. Parker near Clarkton during September and who had to be protected by the military from a lynching bee that would undoubtedly have developed but for the soldiers and determination of the civil authorities in charge in this city two days after the crime, were brought from the penitentiary at Raleigh where they had been for safe-keeping on the Fayetteville train which arrived last night at 8 o'clock, the prisoners having been taken off at Garland station Sampson county, and carried across country by private conveyance, to Elizabethtown, where they will be arraigned in Bladen Superior Court probably to-day. The prisoners were brought from Raleigh by Special Deputies A. E. Cain and N. M. Singletary, but at Garland the guard was reinforced by Sheriff Lyon and other officers for the trip to Bladen's county seat, which they expected to reach last midnight. Capt. W. H. Pemberton, who was in charge of the train which brought the officers and their charges down from Fayetteville last night, said that the deputies seemed to have no fear of lynching and that it was at the sheriff's request that the Fayetteville military was not ordered out to protect the prisoners during the trial. There was apparently no effort to conceal the movement of the prisoners from the penitentiary and crowds were at the various stations en route to get a glimpse of the negroes. That the route of their transfer from Raleigh to Bladen was known in Elizabethtown is evidenced by the special above, which was received early last night. The negroes were securely handcuffed on the train, however, and the officers were well armed as a precautionary measure. The negro charged by his companion with the commission of the crime still protests his innocence, though confident of being hanged, and exclaimed on the train last night when about to reach Garland that he was "going to meet his God in heaven." The other negro still sticks to his story that his companion committed the crime and has varied his evidence little from his original confession before being brought to the Wilmington jail.

Judge Ward, who will try the case, is from Elizabeth City, and was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Judge George H. Brown upon the latter's election to the Supreme Court bench. His court at Bladen this week is the first he has held.

Baker-Hollingsworth Nuptials.

Friends in the city yesterday received handsomely engraved invitations bearing the following announcement of interest: "Mrs. Elizabeth Hollingsworth invites you to be present at the marriage of her daughter, Ellen Beatrice, to Mr. Henry Thatcher Baker on Wednesday morning, October 19th, 1904, at nine o'clock at the First Baptist church Fayetteville, North Carolina." Mr. Baker is connected with the Cape Fear Lumber Co. in this city and Miss Hollingsworth is one of Fayetteville's most charming young women.

New Railroad Connection.

Yesterday's Fayetteville Observer: "The regular schedule on the Aberdeen & Rockfish railroad, between Hope Mills and Aberdeen, went into effect to-day. There will be two passenger trains a day, one arriving at Hope Mills before and leaving just after the north-bound passenger trains on the A. C. L., and one arriving just before and leaving just after the south bound passenger trains in the afternoon. Connection is made at Hope Mills with both the main line train and the Bennettsville train."

NO RESPECT FOR THE DEAD.

Colored Women Fought Pitched Battle at House Where Wake Was in Progress. Three Arrests Followed.

A story of disgraceful conduct in the presence of the dead will be told in Justice Fowler's court at 10 o'clock this morning when four cases of assault and battery with a deadly weapon are called against Mary Eliza Murphy, Mary Sidbury and Martha Smith, colored women who live in Murphy's alley and were arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable Savage. The Smith woman has a double charge of assault to answer while the others are held only on one count.

An old man died at the house of Eliza Johnson, in the alley, Sunday, and that night a big wake was being held. Negro women for blocks around gathered at the house to sit up all night and pay proper respect to the dead. The Smith woman lives on Eighth street and the back yard of her house abuts on that of the Johnson woman, where the old man had died. Late that night during the wake, trouble arose between the Smith woman and some of those who were sitting up. The ire was passed and two of the women went together. Then many of the others began to align themselves and a pitched battle ensued in which opposing sides used brickbats and knives. Pandemonium reigned until some of the more self-respecting ones in the house remonstrated with the belligerents and a flag of truce was run up until the old man could be buried. Meantime the warrants were procured and the parties haled to court. The case promises to rival that one about a year ago in which two colored undertakers in the same vicinity fell out over which was to bury a colored man and one actually fought the other who made so bold as to attempt to lift the corpse from his competitor's coffin and place it in the one brought by himself, the deceased having left insurance to amply pay for a very decent burial.

Sad Bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gilchrist have the tenderest sympathy of friends in the death of their little son, William Gilchrist, Jr., who died yesterday morning after a long and painful illness with a most malignant type of diphtheria. William was 11 years and eight months of age and was an exceptionally bright young fellow, giving great promise for the future. He was stricken down with the dread disease a few days before he expected to enter school here and complete his preparation for a thorough education in college. The funeral was conducted privately yesterday afternoon in beautiful Oakdale cemetery and the remains were laid to rest in the family lot. The services were by Rev. J. M. Wells, Ph.D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

MAYOR'S MONDAY MATINEE.

Number of Offenders Yesterday—Shooting of Owen Meredith Saturday Night.

While the Mayor frowned upon a dozen or more offenders in the police court yesterday and made the mental observation that many of the faces were not unfamiliar, none of the cases was of real importance. Jim Teachey, colored, who was drunk and disorderly at Seventh and Castle streets Saturday night and resisted Officer G. S. Phillips when he arrested him, was fined $10 and costs for his disorder and was given an additional fine of $20 for resisting, the whole amount aggregating something like $37.50. Zach Pollock, colored, who returned to "the wife of his bosom" after he had left her for several years and who found Melton Burton, colored, there, proceeded to make a "rough house" and was fined $10 and costs. Burton was among the spectators in the court room and was called inside the bar to tell what he knew of the affair. It developed that Burton had made an assault on Pollock and he, too, was made a defendant, having been fined $5 and costs.

Howard Perkins and Sam Hooper, both colored, were arraigned upon the charge of an assault with a deadly weapon upon Owen Meredith, the negro who was shot in the shoulder in "Dross Neck" Saturday night. Meredith was able to be in court but he was drunk Saturday night and knew little of the shooting. Other witnesses, however, saw the affair and upon their testimony Perkins was sent over to the higher court in default of $50 bond. Hooper was found guilty of a simple assault only.

New Wilmington Enterprise.

A certificate of incorporation for the Co-operative Grocery Company, of Wilmington, was received by the Clerk of the Superior Court yesterday. S. S. Drew is named as agent of the company and the objects are stated to be that of dealing in groceries and produce of all kinds. The authorized capital is $25,000 divided into 2,500 shares of the per value of $10 each but the company is authorized to begin business upon $510, which is subscribed as follows: S. S. Drew, 15 shares; J. D. Price, J. P. Stephens, and H. Burkheimer, two shares each; G. F. Quinn, Chas. T. Harper, and J. O. Powers, three shares each; J. H. W. Bonitz, 10 shares; J. B. Mercer, one share; Z. E. Murrell and C. D. Weeks, five shares each.

Negro Assaulted White Man.

Wade Chesnut, a negro fireman on one of the passenger trains running out of Wilmington, made a desperate assault upon Mr. H. B. Bessent, a round-house foreman, in the A. C. L. yards here Sunday afternoon. The negro struck Mr. Bessent on the side of the head with a shovel, inflicting a painful cut. Chesnut was arraigned before Justice William McD. Evans at Justice Bornemann's office yesterday and was bound over to the Superior Court in the sum of $100. Justice Evans said that the case against the negro was of such an aggravated character that he felt constrained to fix the bond at $300 justified, but he finally yielded to a request of Chesnut's counsel, Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy and Herbert McClammy, and the bond remained at $100.

Two Quarantines Yesterday.

The Health Department yesterday established two quarantines, one for scarlet fever at the residence of Mr. H. W. Angel, 116 Walnut street, his little son, Henry Love, four years old, being the patient, and the other for diphtheria at 324 South Fifth street, the patient being Miss Bertha Steljes, 19 years of age. The diphtheria quarantines at the residences of Mr. W. W. Banks, on Walnut street, and Mr. Beach on North Sixth street, were lifted.

Death of an Infant.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Carter sympathize with them in the death of their infant daughter, Susan E., aged one year and ten months, which occurred Sunday night of cholera infantum at the family residence, 711 Castle street. The funeral was conducted at 4 P. M. yesterday by the Rev. Mr. Burch, and the interment was in Bellevue.

G. Z. FRENCH IS NO MORE,

Mr. G. Z. French, for many years prominent in Republican politics in this county, for several terms postmaster here, twice elected to the General Assembly from New Hanover during the Reconstruction period and acting sheriff of the county at the time of the revolution in '98 when the government was wrested from the hands of the fusionists by the Democrats, died suddenly Sunday night at 11:20 o'clock at the home of his sister-in-law in Bangor, Me. The news reached the city yesterday in a private telegram to ex-Governor D. L. Russell and it quickly spread over the city, causing regret to many personal friends, who, not admiring his political record, found much to commend itself in his individual character.

Mr. French was about 72 years of age and since the disturbance here in '98, had made his home on a fine farm which he owned on the river, near Rocky Point, in Pender county. He was engaged there in agricultural pursuits and the mining of phosphate and lime for the fertilizer trade. Latterly his health became bad and he went to his native State to recuperate, his death there having soon followed. Mr. French came to Wilmington as a sutler with the Federal army during the war and after the surrender settled here, and engaged in the mercantile business. His election to the Legislature followed and he was a leader of the Republicans in the famous Reconstruction period. Later he was postmaster and acting sheriff and deputy under Sheriff Hewlett. He had not returned to Wilmington since he retired in '98. The funeral and interment took place in Maine yesterday.

Boy's Narrow Escape.

Chief Conductor John Sheehan, of the Consolidated Company, made a timely rescue of a boy on a velocipede who came very near being run over by a suburban car near Fifth and Princess streets Sunday afternoon. The boy, whose name was not learned, was riding with several others by the side of the track and some distance in front. Conductor Sheehan was standing on the front step of the car watching the boys, thinking they knew all about the approach of the car. But the boys didn't, and as the car was nearly upon them one of the number came so close in to the track that he would certainly have been caught under the step but for the presence of mind and quick action of Mr. Sheehan. He reached down, grasped the youngster under the arm and brought him up, velocipede and all.

Negro Girl Kleptomaniac.

Lizzie Griffin, a respectable looking colored girl who had been employed as a house servant by Mrs. S. P. Sprinkley, was arraigned in Justice Fowler's court yesterday afternoon upon two counts of larceny from her employer. Several days ago she stole a silk shirtwaist from Mrs. Sprinkley, and when she was accused by the owner of the property, she became frightened and secretly returned the garment a day or two later. Last week the girl went into a trunk and stole therefrom a $10 bank note. Suspicion at once rested on Lizzie and she was confronted with the charge, as a result of which she confessed and told of how she disposed of the money. The father of the girl, a respectable colored man, told Justice Fowler that his daughter was a kleptomaniac. She cried and said she couldn't help stealing the money, when she was sent to jail in default of $50 bond in each of the counts of larceny.

First Mate Dead.

Mr. William L. Lockwood, first mate on the Clyde steamer "Carib," whose serious illness at the Marine Hospital was noted in these columns Sunday, died the same morning, and the remains, accompanied by his wife, who arrived the day before, were taken on the afternoon train to the former home of the deceased at Charleston, S. C., for interment. Mr. Lockwood was 34 years of age. His death was due to inflamation of the brain, probably caused by a blow he received on the steamer several months ago.

THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Its Messengers Go This Morning to Wilmington Association With Remarkably Fine Report.

The Wilmington District Baptist Association will convene at Wells' Chapel, Sampson county, this morning at 11 o'clock and a number of representatives from the churches in this city will be in attendance. Those from the First church will be Pastor Fred D. Hale, Messrs. A. S. Holden, R. M. Wescott and G. E. Leftwich. Those from Brooklyn Baptist church are Messrs. D. L. Gore, S. L. Smith and H. L. Peterson.

Although the First church has had the services of a pastor only five months during the past year, messengers from that congregation will take up a most gratifying report to the Association. The church during that time has received 57 new members into its fellowship, and its total contributions have been $4,165.74. Of this amount, the Sunday school raised $388, the Ladies' Missionary Society $140, the Sunbeams, $113, and the United Workers, $656. The contribution to Missions and benevolence was $632, and to church improvements, $1,259. The amount pledged to the Association for Missions the coming year is $800. The church numbers 480 members. There were present at the Sunday school last Sunday 277.

Dr. Wm. Lunsford, of Asheville, is to help Pastor Hale in a revival meeting, beginning next Sunday. The outlook for the meeting, and for the church the coming year, is quite hopeful.

A reception will be given to Mrs. Hale by the ladies of the church, next Friday.

MINSTREL EVENT EXTRAORDINARY.

West's Merry Troupe of Entertainers Scored Big Success in Elks' Benefit.

Wilmington has had three first rate minstrel shows already this season and the verdict of a great many competent critics is that the performance last night of the Wm. H. West entertainers was the best of them all. It was good, there's no contradicting that. Many were constrained to believe that the benefit feature discounted the performance from the first, and that the Elks would be depended upon to bolster up the show, but the show needed no bolstering. It deserves to live and do handsomely on its merits. The street parade at noon was one of the best ever seen here. The band was way above the average and larger. The costumes were bright, original and made a striking appearance.

The show has a wide awake contingent of funny fellows in Tom Mack, Jack Crawford, John Manning, Andy Kelly, Jos. McDevitt, Major Smith, Joe Alder, George Jones and Wm. Tracy, with Mr. George S. Van as interlocutor. The singing was all that could be desired and the orchestra blending was perfect. Some of the singers were Geo. T. Martin, Edward Roy, John P. Moore, James Sadler, Gilbert Losee, Geo. S. Van, Frank C. Bell, Waynechristy D. Plouff, Richard Gray, Fred Johnson and Wm. Stewart. The Hawaiian love song, "Aloha," by the "Great West Octette" as the concluding number of the first part, was great.

The olio is exceptionally strong, introducing a number of artists, each one of whom is a top-liner. The sensational cycle whirl, imported from Europe by the management, was new and a filling finale to a great performance.

THE MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.

Organized Yesterday Morning for Ensuing Year—Officers Elected.

The Ministerial Association of the city met yesterday morning in the Y. M. C. A. parlors and reorganized for the ensuing year by the election of the following officers: President, N. M. Watson, of Grace M. E. church; vice president, Rev. C. W. Kegley, of St. Matthew's English Lutheran church; secretary and treasurer, Rev. J. S. Crowley, of Immanuel Presbyterian church. Standing committees were named as follows:

Committee on Membership—Dr. Fred. D. Hale and Rev. R. W. Hogue.

The next meeting will be held next Monday morning at 10 o'clock, at which time Rev. Mr. Crowley will deliver an address on Missions in Africa. He will use curios to illustrate the lecture, the specimens having been gathered by Rev. Mr. Crowley during his residence as a missionary in that field. The Association gives promise of much good during the year in that the efforts of all Protestant pastors will be unified to a common end.

"UNIVERSITY DAY."

BANQUET AT THE ORTON.

Programme Announced for Delightful Celebration—Will Form an Association in Wilmington—Col. Waddell Toastmaster.

One of the pleasant social functions of the present week in Wilmington will be the celebration of "University Day" by the large number of alumni of North Carolina's leading educational institution who reside in this city. The celebration will occur to-morrow to-night and will take the form of social gathering in the parlors of The Orton from 8 to 8:30 o'clock for the purpose of organizing an Alumni Association, followed by a banquet in the elegant new dining room of the hotel. Every person who has been a matriculated student in any department of the University is an alumnus and is invited and expected to attend. The affair will be as informal as it is possible to make it and there will be no requirements as to dress. Every alumnus is cordially invited and is expected to be present without further invitation. A fee of only $1.50 will be charged each alumnus to defray the expense of the banquet and the organization of the association. The programme for the meeting is as follows:

Col. A. M. Waddell, Toastmaster
"Some Reminiscences of the University."

Herbert McClammy, Esq.
"Hon. Matthew W. Ransom, a product of the University."

Dr. E. J. Wood.
"What the University Offers to a Medical Student."

T. E. Brown, Esq.
"The University and Athletics."

Rev. R. B. John, D. D.
"Religious Life at the University."

Marsden Bellamy, Esq.
"The Purport of this Meeting."

Extempore Speeches.

The first speech will not exceed 15 minutes and the others will not exceed five. The banquet will be served in The Orton's characteristic elaborate style and it promises to be one of the most delightful in the history of the hostelry under its new management.

The celebration of "University Day" at Wilmington will be simultaneous with others of the same nature at centres of population all over the State, the idea having been promulgated by President Venable a few months ago and received with popular favor everywhere. Mr. C. W. Worth and J. O. Carr, Esq., were leaders in the movement to assemble the alumni of the University at Wilmington and the success of their undertaking gives great promise. More than a hundred guests are expected at the banquet, and it is doubtful if "University Day" anywhere else in the State will be quite the delightful event it will be in Wilmington.

LOCAL MARKETS AND SHIPPING.

Two Schooners Arrived—The Sea Gate. Cotton and Steamers.

Cotton receipts yesterday 4,319 bales against 2,280 same day last year. The New York spot market yesterday was up 15 points, closing at 10.55.

Steamer "Compton" arrived Sunday night from Georgetown, S. C., with cargo of 331 bales of cotton for Messrs. Sprunt & Son. She cleared for the return trip last night.

Schooners "Edith H. Symington," Capt. Stiles, from New York, and "Bayard Hopkins," Capt. Thorkerson, from Philadelphia, arrived yesterday, the first named with part cargo of salt for the D. L. Gore Co., and part cargo of cement for the S. A. L. warehouses, and the "Hopkins" with 450 tons of coal for J. A. Springer & Co.

The river steamer "Sea Gate," purchased by the Wilmington, Southport and Little River Transportation Co., for the line between this city and Southport, arrived yesterday morning about 9:30 o'clock and tied up at Stone & Co's. wharf. She is a very handsome craft and was admired by hundreds who went down to see her during the day. A description of the boat has been previously published. Capt. Sanders is to be congratulated upon the new acquisition to the fleet.

British steamer "Vera," 1334 tons, Capt. Bennett, arrived Sunday afternoon from New York and will take a berth at the upper compress for a cotton cargo.

FAYETTEVILLE GETS U. D. C.

State Convention Will be Held There Instead of in Goldsboro.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer has the following:

The State convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy is to be held in Fayetteville, beginning October 26th, and lasting three days.

The convention was to have been held at Goldsboro; but, owing to an epidemic of sickness there, the President of the State Association proposed to Mrs. Hunter G. Smith, President of the Fayetteville Chapter, that the convention be held here. This morning Mrs. Smith called the local chapter together, and it was decided to ask the Daughters to meet here. This convention will bring about two hundred of the most prominent women of the State here. Fayetteville should and will extend a cordial welcome to them.

GENTLEMAN, SOLDIER, STATESMAN.

There was laid in the grave yesterday in the family burying ground in Northampton county one of North Carolina's most able and eminent sons, Gen. Matthew Whitaker Ransom, who died suddenly Saturday morning of heart failure at his home in the country, near Garysburg, Northampton county.

General Ransom reached the age of 78 years the day before he died, and within those 78 years he had achieved a distinction that rarely falls to the lot of man. Early in his youth he displayed the marks of ability and loftiness of character that characterized him in life. He was a born gentleman, bore himself with easy dignity, and was lordly of mien. He was a particularly handsome man and was endowed with a personality and bearing which would cause one to pick him out among 10,000 and ask "What man is that?"

General Ransom was suave in manner and faultless in dress and there is no wonder that he was known as the Chesterfield of the United States Senate when that body was honored by his membership. He was indeed a man of fine personality, was possessed of striking intellectuality, and was a diplomat in every sense of the word. He was a ripe scholar, a speaker of individual force, eloquent and convincing in argument, and an orator endowed with gracefulness, dramatic power and intellectual force. There was a classic charm about his speeches and he was one of the few men that we could listen to for two hours without wishing for the conclusion. Singular as it appears, however, it is said that he never made but one set speech in the Senate and on that occasion he thrilled that body and made a tremendous reputation throughout the country. However, at Washington he was regarded as one of the South's ablest statesmen and he was one who did something for his State while he was there.

The venerable Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama, one of the South's greatest statesmen, in a confidential letter to Mr. Joseph P. Caldwell, now editor of the Charlotte Observer, but then editor of another paper, said this of Senator Ransom as far back as 1891:

"General Ransom regards nothing lightly that transpires in the Senate and never forgets his personal dignity or that of his high office. His State is first, above all, in his thoughts and affections. If I could criticise an attitude that is so natural to a true representative, I would think that his convictions of duty to the whole people were, sometimes, subordinated to his more intense regard for the interests of North Carolina. I have complained of this, to him, on some occasions, but have found myself, as often, ready to yield to the like temptation. Experience has taught me that such emulations are not dangerous."

General Ransom distinguished himself in the civil war and his genius as a military leader was conspicuously recognized. It would be impossible to follow up in detail the career of this distinguished North Carolinian, but we can summarize here what all North Carolinians are ready to accept—that within the tomb where they have laid him in Northampton are the mortal remains of a superb gentleman, admirable soldier, wise statesman, and patriotic son of North Carolina.

In the Raleigh Post of Sunday we find this in a sketch prepared upon request by the Hon. Fabius H. Busbee, of the Raleigh Bar:

Matt Whitaker Ransom, the oldest son of Robert Ransom, was born in Warren county October 7, 1826. His mother, Priscilla Whitaker, was a member of the Whitaker family of Halifax, which has always been prominent in the history of the county.

After an academic education in Warrenton, he entered the University of North Carolina, and was graduated in the class of 1847, being a class-mate of Gen. J. Johnston Pettigrew, Senator John Pool and other men of note. The commencement was the notable one attended by President Polk, and the English salutatory address of the young graduate was one of the features of the occasion.

Soon after graduation he entered upon the practice of law in Warrenton, and at once attained marked success. While a very young man, about 1853 he was a candidate for attorney general, and although a Whig he was elected by a legislature which contained a small Democratic majority. As a prosecuting officer he was eloquent, forcible and successful, but never vindictive or implacable. Among other notable cases, he secured the conviction of the wife murderer Parker Perry, in Wake county, despite the efforts of the strongest lawyers in the State to save him.

He resigned before the end of his term and removed his residence to the county of Northampton, having married Miss Pattie Exum of that county. From that time he was largely engaged in planting. In 1858 he was a member of the House of Commons from Northampton as a Democrat.

When the clouds that had long been hovering over the land, in 1861 broke into the storm of war, the lawyer-planter was among the first to volunteer. He became colonel of the Thirty-fourth North Carolina, the present chief justice, Walter Clark, being at one time the adjutant of his regiment. He was afterwards promoted to be brigadier general, and distinguished himself by conspicuous gallantry in many engagements. At the capture of Plymouth he was second in command to General Hoke, and was greatly commended. At Fredericksburg he held the line at Marie's Heights with matchless courage, and at Five Forks and other historic fields his reputation as a skilful and fearless soldier was forever established. After the close of the war General Ransom resumed the life of a planter and lawyer, and had a large and lucrative practice, especially in Warren, Halifax and Northampton counties. When the hired minions of Kirk held the truest men of the State in custody, and the State courts seemed powerless to relieve, General Ransom applied to Judge Brooks for the writ of habeas corpus, and in co-operation with the veterans of the bar, Bragg, W. H. Battle, B. F. Moore and others brought about the release of the prisoners and the restoration of the reign of law.

In January, 1872, when the senate of the United States had declined to admit the great tribune, Zebulon B. Vance, to a seat in that body, because his disabilities had not been removed, General Ransom was elected by the General Assembly of North Carolina as Senator of the United States. He remained, by successive re-elections, a member of that body until March 4, 1894, having had the longest term of service of any North Carolinian.

His services for nearly a quarter of a century are a part of the political history of the country. He entered the Senate when the passions engendered by the war were still glowing at white heat, and he was perhaps the greatest single force in the Senate in bringing about the reconciliation of the warring sections. While he would speak with matchless eloquence and force, as was shown in his great argument in the Louisiana case, his chief work was done in committee room and on the floor, day by day and year by year, in bringing about a more perfect union of states and peoples.

STOMACH TROUBLE.

Mr. W. E. Waterhouse Cured by vinol After Everything Else Had Failed.

Mr. Waterhouse says: "I suffered so long with indigestion and stomach troubles that I lost 71 pounds in weight. I had used all kinds of remedies without help. Vinol was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon commenced to feel better, my stomach trouble disappeared and I can eat heartily without the slightest distress. My experience leads to believe that no medicine equals Vinol for stomach troubles and indigestion. It tones up the stomach, increases the appetite and creates strength."

Robert R. Bellamy, our local druggist, says: "It is no wonder that Vinol cures such cases as that of Mr. Waterhouse when you consider that Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the strengthening, healing properties of that famous old remedy, cod liver oil, without a drop of oil or grease to nauseate and upset the stomach, and this is why it cures when sickening drugs, emulsions and old forms of cod liver oil fail.

"Vinol is easily digested, it heals and tones up the tired, worn nerves of stomach, creates a healthy appetite and makes pure, rich, red blood.

"At any rate," said Mr. Bellamy, "If there is a person in Wilmington suffering from stomach trouble, we ask them to try Vinol on our guarantee to return money if it fails. This is a fair and square offer made in good faith."—Robert R. Bellamy, druggist.

CURRENT COMMENT.

— Now that the politicians are beginning to talk about an expensive campaign in Indiana the boys are cheering up a bit.—Indianapolis News.

— Tim Woodruff told the President that things looked good in New York. Gov. Odell says it looks like $800,000 or a licking.—Washington Post.

— Baltimore Sun: If there is any truth in that story from New York it would seem that the corporations do not yet own the country, but do intend to acquire it by purchase.

— Attorney General Moody promises that the reciprocity proposition with Canada will be taken up after the election. Mr. Moody talks like a man who thinks the Democrats are going to win.—Washington Post.

— Congressman Hill, of Connecticut, is complaining that the currency laws of the country cannot safely be entrusted to the Democrats. He has been trying for four years to get his own party to enact a very good currency reform bill of his, and has never been able to accomplish it. A year ago Speaker Cannon put him off the committee on currency and banking in the hope that that would keep him quiet.—Philadelphia Record.

— News has reached Reidsville on Saturday that W. A. Bryant was killed at Mayodan Saturday afternoon by Fleas. Head, of the same place. The report says that Head had been teasing Bryant about being drunk, when the latter became incensed and commenced to curse Head in a violent manner and to approach Head, who was standing on the porch, washing his hands, having just come out of the cotton mill. Head told Bryant not to come any further, whereupon the former threatened to whip Head. Then it was that Head stepped into the house and secured a gun. Bryant was still advancing when Head again told him not to come upon him. He kept approaching, however, and Head, in order to frighten him, shot him in the leg, not intending to kill him, so he claims. The shot struck an artery, and Bryant bled to death in a few minutes.

Why It Succeeds.

Because It's for One Thing Only, and Wilmington is Learning This.

Nothing can be good for everything.

Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only.

Here is evidence to prove it.

E. Poezolt, merchant tailor, of Eighth South Front street, residing at 315 North Sixth street, says: "My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills and in her case they proved to be an effective remedy. She suffered with her ankles and could scarcely get down stairs in the morning. We thought it was rheumatism and her ankles would be all puffed up every morning so she could hardly hobble around. Since obtaining Doan's Kidney Pills at R. R. Bellamy's drug store, and taking them, she seems like another person. She is better in the morning, the swelling left her ankle and from the great relief she obtained we are only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—It was a fairly active day in the cotton market with prices ruling generally firm. The opening was firm at an advance of three to twelve points in response to better cables than expected. Private cables ascribed the advance in Liverpool to lighter Southern offerings and continuous prosperous trade conditions. The reports of smaller Southern offerings tended to color the private reports from the South concerning the disposition of the planters to hold cotton for higher prices. Trading during the early session was quiet and seemed to be largely professional in character, but as the session progressed and prices continued to work higher, outside business improved somewhat, with wire and commission houses with Southern connections good buyers. Helped by this the bulls bid aggressively and toward the middle of the afternoon caught stop orders with the result that prices shot up about twenty-one to twenty-two points above Saturday's finals. Towards the close realizing by room longs and some pressure from bearish sources let them off slightly, but the market was steady at a slight advance of fourteen to sixteen points. Sales were estimated at 300,000 bales. Receipts at the ports to-day 68,718 bales against 73,778 and 49,496 last year. For the week 400,000 against 397,869 last week and 299,519 last year. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Closing an account of a debate between Webb and Newell, the Madison County Record says: "Webb carried the district by 5,300 majority two years ago, and will increase this to about 8,000 this year."

— So Tom Watson believes that he could carry North Carolina if he had three months in which to turn the trick. Evidently, if he is any sort of a prophet, North Carolinians are a gullible lot, for Watson's party failed to carry a single county in his own State—Georgia—Tuesday—Salisbury Sun.

— Elizabeth City Economist: One of the most peculiar election bets that has been recorded to date was recorded yesterday. A prominent undertaker of the city, who is also a very enthusiastic supporter of Parker and Davis, bet a $65 coffin against a $5 hat that Parker and Davis would be elected. The bet was duly recorded and witnessed, and if Roosevelt is elected the other gentleman will have supplied himself with a funeral box at least.

—Charlotte Chronicle, Oct. 8th: The Chronicle to-day concludes an instructive article on building and loan associations, prepared by Mr. D. A. Tompkins, and published in the Manufacturers' Record, of Baltimore. When Mr. Tompkins started out in his youth to carve his way, he found the building and loan his first anchor. He got his start there and he has since followed the operations of building and loan associations with much interest. There is no better authority either in the North or South on building and loan affairs, and Mr. Tompkins' contribution on this subject is calculated to command general attention.

— M. V. Forrest, a carpenter of Hendersonville, N. C., who has been at work in Knoxville, Tenn., received a message Saturday informing him that his wife and child were dying at Hendersonville. He boarded a train, and while at Hodges Station, Tenn., awaiting another train, he stepped into a telegraph office to attempt to find out the condition of his family. He seated himself in a chair while the operator was busy. Soon the message came from Hendersonville and the operator spoke to Forrest, who did not answer. He walked to where the man was seated and touched him with the message in his hand, but discovered that Forrest was dead, having died of heart failure.

—A dispatch from Jackson, N. C., concerning Gen. M. W. Ransom's death on Saturday morning says "General Ransom since his retirement from the United States Senate has been actively engaged in looking after his large farming interests and has accumulated a large estate. Besides this he was insured for $20,000 in the New York Life. There is great grief in all this section, for General Ransom was beloved by all who knew him. With his death the State loses it greatest son, one whose name is indissolubly connected with some of the momentous events in its history." Senator Ransom was the largest landsman in North Carolina, his buildings being about 18,000 acres. In fact he said once that only one man knows how much land he owned and that was himself. His estate is estimated to be worth nearly 250,000.

— Baltimore Sun: Louisiana brimstone is now added to Texas petroleum, Alabama iron, Carolina cotton goods and Southern cotton, rice and sugar as a commercial article in which Dixie is a price-maker and important source of supply. The sulphur mines of Louisiana produce a pure brimstone in great quantity which can be sold in competition with that of Sicily. During September, it is stated, 28,000 tons were sold, and the market is ready to take Louisiana sulphur as fast as it can be got out. The first shipments were about 10,000 tons, which were sent to New York in July last. The Sicilian interests were slow to believe that their monopoly was threatened, but they are now anxious to chip in. A new factor in the world's brimstone market has arrived. "In the short period of a few months," says the New York Journal of Commerce, "Louisiana brimstone has not only been shipped to New York in substantial quantities, but has become an important factor in foreign markets and the dominating factor in this market."

Saves Two from Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y.; "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and to-day she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Trial bottles free.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

— Charlotte Observer, Oct. 8th: The Fidelity Cotton Mill has resumed operations, after a necessary suspension while a quantity of new machinery was being installed. The mill now has an equipment of 10,000 spindles, 2,060 having been added, and the outlook for the future is very bright indeed. The directors will continue to install new spindles until the building shall have been filled with machinery. The resumption of operations by this mill is a matter of interest in Charlotte, especially to that class of working people who earn a livelihood by work in the mills, and those tradesmen dependent upon the textile workers for their share in the community's prosperity.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 11.

CAMPAIGN IN MARYLAND.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 10.—The campaigning tour of Henry G. Davis, Democratic vice presidential candidate, through Maryland and West Virginia, was begun to-night by an immense gathering of Democrats in Lyric Hall, the concourse being so vast that thousands unable to gain admission to the hall were addressed at an overflow meeting from a stand on the public streets hastily erected for the occasion.

Senator Davis received an enthusiastic ovation upon his appearance as did the venerable governor, and Senator William Pickney White, David B. Hill, Senator Gorman and Senator Daniel, all of whom made speeches and all of whom with the exception of Senator Gorman will accompany Senator Davis on his tour.

Senator Gorman presided, introducing each of the speakers. In a brief speech accepting the chairmanship, he referred to the strictures of Secretary Root concerning the advanced age of Senator Davis and expressed confidence in the election of the Democratic ticket. He introduced Senator Davis as the "young man."

Mr. Davis and Mr. Hill also addressed the overflowing meeting.

The special train conveying Senator Davis and party will leave at 8:30 to-morrow en route through Maryland and West Virginia to Wisconsin. The campaign tour will be at Bluefield, W. Va., on October 18.

MURDERED MAN'S WATCH.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

WHITEVILLE, N. C., Oct. 10.—Mr. J. L. Britton, who purchased the Register plantation on Madison street, Whiteville, half way between the Court House and the depot, one day last week, in making repairs to the barn on the premises, found a gold watch, the property of Mr. Jesse Soles, the man who was murdered and afterwards burned at the same time that Jim Staley, colored, was murdered and burned by Jabel Register, who was hung for the crime, and whose father, "Buck" Register, is now serving a life sentence in the penitentiary as an accomplice.

Jesse Soles' name was engraven on the case and it has been identified by his brother, W. A. J. Soles, and others, as being Jesse's property. Jabel claimed he had no knowledge of, nor had anything to do with the killing of Jesse Soles, for which Coleman Smith was tried and acquitted, but this is considered prima facia evidence that Jabel did know how Jesse Soles was killed and that he was a party to the crime.

YOUNG WOMAN DROWNED.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NORFOLK, VA., Oct. 10.—Miss Bessie Wilson, who was drowned at Virginia Beach yesterday afternoon, was the young daughter of the late William L. Wilson, former postmaster-general, instead of his niece, as first reported. She was bathing in the surf with her sister, Miss Mary Wilson, and a party of friends. A swift undertow swept all fully a quarter of a mile from shore before help could be secured. The other young women succeeded in floating until picked up by life savers an hour later, but Miss Wilson became exhausted and succumbed.

Despite the serious condition of Mrs. William L. Wilson, from the shock caused by Miss Wilson's death, she tonight accompanied the remains on their way to Charlestown, W. Va., via Washington for interment.

TWO CHILDREN KILLED.

Shot to Death by Their Father, Who Afterwards Attempted Suicide.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 10.—B. Schnep, a Bohemian, 41 years of age, living at 418 Congress street, took his two children, Emma and John, aged four and three years, into the cellar of their home this afternoon and killed them by shooting them in the temple. The children had been gagged to prevent an outcry. After killing his children Schnep went to the cemetery where his wife who had died a year ago, is buried, and shot himself in his head. His wound is believed to be not fatal. Besides shooting his children Schnep struck them on the head with a five-pound hammer. Schnep had been ill for months and brooded over the death of his wife.

BUILDING COLLAPSED.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SANTIAGO, CHILE, Oct. 10.—One hundred workmen were buried by the fall to-day of walls in course of erection for an extension of the Casa Pra stores in this city. Up to the present, fifteen corpses and forty wounded have been recovered from the ruins. The fire brigade has been called out to assist in removal of the dead and wounded. The walls, which were constructed of iron and cement, had reached a height of four stories. There is much indignation against the architect who planned and had charge of the work.

GEN. KUROPATKIN TAKES OFFENSIVE.

JAPANESE CONCENTRATING.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

While General Kuropatking has continued to advance his entire army against the armies of Field Marshal Oyama he has not met with any formidable opposition. However, the expectation is that a battle of magnitude must be fought within a few days. It is thought that the Japanese will make a stand at Liao Yang.

In St. Petersburg it is surmised that Oyama's forces have been weakened by the dispatch of troops to aid General Nogi in reducing Port Arthur, and that this condition has afforded Gen. Kuropatkin an opportunity to recover ground lost during the month of August.

Russian Forward Movement.

MUKDEN, Oct. 9.—The Russian forward movement has begun and Bentsiaputze has been captured with a small loss.

In order to a clear understanding of the situation, it may be stated that two days ago the Japanese had ten divisions confronting the Russians north of the Taitse river. Their left flank, consisting of two divisions, was on the railway and at Sandiapu, thirty miles southwest of Mukden, and close to the Hun river. Their centre, composed of four divisions, occupied the railway between Liao Yang and Chandiapudzi, twelve miles north. Two more divisions occupied the extreme Japanese right along the road between Betsiaputze and Bneishu.

Their front extended about 52 miles. The position about Bentsiaputze was strongly fortified and intended to withstand attacks. It is reported that Gen. Kuroki was there in person. The Japanese had omitted to fortify one hill, which was the key to the position. The Russians, aware of this omission, made a wide detour eastward and seized the hill with little opposition. The hill once occupied exposed the whole Japanese position to a heavy flanking fire. The Russians also turned the Japanese right, and the fortified positions thus becoming untenable, the Japanese were forced to withdraw hurriedly from Bentsiaputze, fighting a rear guard action in which they suffered heavily. The Russian losses throughout were small, though severe opposition had been expected.

Military Movements.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 10, 6:15 P. M.—General Kuropatkin is in the field personally directing the forward movements of the army, which, it is understood is divided into two strong columns, moving on each side of the railroad whence they will draw their supplies, their flanks being assured by no less than 150 squadrons of Cossacks. The Russians are operating along a front of between 40 and 45 miles, extending from Kaoutou Pass to Bentsiaputze on the east and across the Hun river to the left bank of the Liao river on the west. They are taking every precaution against possible counter-attacks, throwing up entrenchments as they advance southward. Field Marshal Oyama, however, has not yet shown a disposition to strongly hold his outer positions. The evacuation of Bentsiaputze left the flank of the Japanese position at the Yentai mines unprotected and news of the abandonment of the mines is therefore hourly expected.

The Japanese appear to be concentrating their forces in the fortifications formerly occupied by the Russians on the great bank of the Taitse river which are exceedingly strong, and they have an equally strong defence, south and north.

The Japanese retired from Bentsiaputze almost without a struggle, fearing that General Mitschenko's Cossacks would surround the position and cut them off.

Bentsiaputze is of the highest importance, commanding the roads from Mukden and Fushun to Liao Yang and Bensihu.

Private advices from Mukden just received indicate that the artillery is already at work. An engagement is reported to have occurred yesterday on the Russian flank, 14 miles southwest of Mukden.

At Port Arthur.

TOKIO, Oct. 10, 10 P. M.—It is reported here that the Japanese recently centered a fire from the land positions and from the fleet blockading Port Arthur on the west harbor with the object of destroying the Russian fleet and succeeded in sinking three vessels, the names and character of which are unknown.

The failure of the Port Arthur fleet to make sortie is creating the impression that Russians intend to destroy their ships just before the fall of the fortress, in preference to taking the risk of a sortie.

Only Advance Guard Successes.

MUKDEN, Oct. 10, 6 P. M.—At last the correspondents a rpermitted to telegraph the news that the Russian army is moving upon the Japanese. They have waited a long time for this moment, the turning point in the campaign. The advance actually began October 5th, and the preparations were enveloped in the greatest secrecy. Last night a correspondent of the Associated Press telegraphed the first news that the forward march had begun auspiciously for the Russians, the Japanese having lost a most important fortified position, Benisiaputze, the key of the Benaihu roads and the ford of the Taitse river, and having exposed their right flank. This morning came the news that the Japanese were being driven back along the whole front. But these are only advance guard successes. The heavy work is still ahead and a Russian victory will only be certain when the Russians re-enter Liao Yang.

The Japanese armies are prepared to meet the Russians and the advance of the latter is expected to develop quickly. The decisive moment of the campaign is close at hand.

APPOINTMENT TEMPORARY.

Robt. J. Wynne to be Postmaster General Until January.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—President Roosevelt to day announced the appointment of Robt. J. Wynne, acting postmaster general, as postmaster general. The appointment is temporary, and Geo. B. Cortelyou will succeed to the office about January, Mr. Wynne resuming the position of first assistant. Chief Clerk Jno. J. EX-PRESIDENT CLEVELAND

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The following official announcement of Grover Cleveland's appearance at a political meeting in this city was made at Democratic headquarters to-day:

"The Business Men's Parker and Davis Association, whose membership is drawn from the leading business men of New York, have arranged to hold a mass meeting in Carnegie Hall on October 21st. Ex-President Grover Cleveland has so far overcome his disinclination to make a speech during the canvass that he has consented to preside at this meeting. It is expected, however, and fully understood both by the national committee and by his friends, that this appearance of the ex-President will be the only one he will make as a speaker during the campaign. The principal speech of the evening will be delivered by ex-Secretary of the Treasury John G. Carlisle and it is expected that this meeting will be the most important one held by any party in New York during the pending campaign. J. Hamden Robb is president of this association.

"FOR HER CHILDREN'S SAKE."

Startling Melo-Drama, Companion Piece to "Fatal Wedding," To-night.

The Academy to-night will offer the well known melodramatic success, "For Her Children's Sake," which is a companion piece to the beautiful "Fatal Wedding," presented here a week or so ago. Seats for the performance are now on sale at Plummer's. Saturday's Raleigh News and Observer says of the company and performance:

"The performance last night at the Academy of Music was a new one of its class for Raleigh, but the audience that assembled gave frequent applause and enjoyed the presentation of 'For Her Children's Sake.'

"The cast is a capable one and is well directed, some portions of the play being especially well rendered. The little boy and girl were natural and unaffected, herein lay the charm of their acting, and they deserve praise.

"The play is a melodrama with much of interest in it, and the development of the plot was well sustained, the denouement following a most effective climax. The performance is worthy of good attendance, for it is a pleasing one."

HIGH CLASS MOVING PICTURES.

That is Claimed for Shepard's Exhibition To-morrow Afternoon and Night.

The programme of high class moving pictures, to be presented by Archie L. Shepard, is replete with special features, introducing comedy, pathos, and dramatic incident, and comprises the most wonderfully realistic pictures ever exhibited on any stage. Each subject is said to be the acme of scientific art, a headlight in itself, and goes to make up a most complete and exceptionally pleasing entertainment of animated views.

Mechanical effects accurately reproducing every sound indicated during the action of the picture, forms one of the realistic features of the presentation, and a special staff of skilled stage employes accompany the exhibition to insure a perfect illusion. This attraction has been secured for the Academy for to-morrow and Thursday night, with a special matinee each afternoon at 3 o'clock. The matinee prices will be 15 and 25 cents, and at night the prices will be 15, 25, 35 and 50 cents. Seats for to-night are on sale at Plummer's.

Florence Railroad Rumors.

Florence Times: "In connection with the cutting down of the force in the Coast Line shops here, it is said by some of the railroad men that there will be a gradual decrease in the working force of these shops and that Rocky Mount will be made the principal machine point on the system. There have been a great many improvements made in those shops recently and more are said to be contemplated. It is also said that there is a possibility that the runs of the train crews will be changed and the men will run from Charleston to Rocky Mount and Rocky Mount to Richmond. This would mean a considerable cut in the population of Florence if it were carried out."

TERRIBLE WRECK MISSOURI PACIFIC.

Twenty-eight Persons Killed and Sixty Injured in a Head-on Collision of Trains.

AT WARRENSBURG, MISSOURI.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WARRENSBURG, MO., Oct. 10.—Twenty-eight persons were killed and sixty injured by a head-on collision of Missouri Pacific trains three miles east of Warrensburg to-day. The trains were the second section of a passenger train from Wichita for St. Louis and an extra freight train. Most of the dead were residents of Missouri and Kansas, as are the injured.

The dead: Mrs. A. J. Dark and twelve year old son Gilbert, Dexter, Kas.; W. H. Allen and two sons, Pittsburg, Kas.; Dorsey Green, Pennsboro, Mo.; T. F. Dores, Bronaugh, Mo.; Nellie Sullivan, Cedarvale, Kas.; Ada Kane, Pittsburg, Kas.; Dollie Sullivan, Cedarvale, Kansas.; T. H. Alley, Cedarvale, Kas.; Mrs. Hattie Kelsey, Oxford, Kas.; G. A. Weber, Forestville, Pa.; Dicey Ream, Bronaugh, Mo.; Cal Ream, Bronaugh, Mo.; Gertrude Loud, Bronaugh, Mo.; Clarence Herring; Dr. H. P. M'Ilheny, Kingman, Kas.; Bessie M'Ilheny, Kingman, Kas.; Mrs. Susan Cooper, Kingman, Kas.; Phil Ragel, wife and son, Edna, Kas.; Harry Carr, Sedan, Kas.; Seidl, brakeman, Jefferson City, Mo.; Mrs. J. J. Cassement, Sedan, Mo.; Mrs. N. Sindsey, Oxford, Kan.; an unidentified woman riding in the cab of the passenger locomotive.

The passenger train, consisting of two coaches, a Pullman and a caboose, was loaded with World's Fair excursionists from Southeastern Kansas and Southwestern Missouri. The Wichita passenger train had been cut in two at Pleasant Hill on account of the heavy load, and a locomotive attached to the front car without a baggage car and a buffer. The extra freight had been side-tracked at Montserrati for the first section of the Wichita train, which carried signals that a second section was following. A local passenger train passed and the freight crew took the local for the second section of the Wichita train and pulled out of the side track. Three miles west the freight met the second section. The impact telescoped the tender of the passenger locomotive and the front car which was full of passengers and it was here that the sacrifice of life took place The passenger conductor, E. L. Barnes, ran all the way to Warrensburg to report the wreck. Every physician in Warrensburg and hundreds of citizens hastened to the wreck to assist the wounded. Twenty persons were killed outright and eight died within a few hours. The dead were placed on flat cars and brought to Warrensburg.

A coroner's jury is now seeking the person responsible for the wreck. The conductor of the freight train says he was dozing, while his train was at Montserrat and when the local train passed Engineer Horton believed it was the second section of the Wichita train, and thinking the track clear, pulled out on the main line.

T. C. Dressel, postmaster at Easterville, Kas., was taken out from under a heap of seven bodies, suffering only a broken leg. F. N. Cunningham, of Mannington, W. Va., was lacerated about the head.

Japanese Traits.

In no country is William Morris' golden rule, "Have nothing about you but what you know to be useful and believe to be beautiful," so scrupulously followed as in Japan. The politeness of the Japanese—a sign of "equality"—the politeness of this hierarchical east, is in surprising contrast with the aggressive rudeness of our democratic communities. Gentleness and cordiality are the Japanese rule; no scenes of violence. The readiness with which Europeans fly into a passion stupefies the Japanese, appears to them to be a sign of innate coarseness. In his consideration for others a Japanese habitually refrains from making any show of his personal sorrows. Only her vanity has led Europe to fancy that the Japanese regard western civilization as superior to their own and that therefore they are "Europeanizing" themselves purposely. The western diplomatist who described modern Japan as a "bad translation" of Europe merely shared the delusion and conceit of foreigners generally.—F. Challaye in Revue de Paris.

"The Dog Will Have His Day."

In "Hamlet," act 4, scene 1, we read:

Let Hercules himself do what he may,
The cat will mew, the dog will have his day.

The latter line has become a popular saying, but we are naturally inclined to ask what it means. Why should a dog have a day all to himself any more than any other four footed creature? Is not the passage a piece of silly slang, and ought it not to be suppressed, like any other cant phrase that is born in the streets? To harmonize the verse with sense and Shakespeare a friend has suggested that the last word ought to be changed to bay. We should then read, "The cat will mew, the dog will have his bay." I have no doubt that Shakespeare wrote it so and that the word day is a misprint and nonsense. The analogy between the cat's mewing and dog's baying is self evident and intelligible.—Kansas City Independent.

Bismarck's Wonderful Eyes.

No one ever came into the presence of the chancellor without a deep sense of the mind power reflected from those large gray blue orbs. Their flashing brilliancy and the piercing penetration of the glances shot from them were never to be forgotten. They seemed incapable of expressing affection, and their steel-like hardness only inspired awe for the towering intellect, the irresistible will, the defiant courage, the fiery energy of their owner. To watch the lightning changes of expression mirrored in them, reflecting the strong emotions evoked by humbled pride, wounded ambition and thwarted self-fishness, and, above all, by the loss of his absolute sway, was indeed an enviable privilege.—Henry Villard in Century.

The Jilt In Italy.

In some countries a betrothal is considered only a degree less sacred than a marriage and therefore a breach of promise, especially on the girl's side, is regarded as very shocking. This is very much the case in Italy, where a girl who after betrothal has changed her mind is known for life as a civetta (owlet) and has rarely another chance of matrimony. The term "owlet" conveys no idea of reproach here, but in Italy it is significant, because owlets are there used for insnaring other birds.

Honoring Senator Ransom.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer: "At the request of Mayor McMillan, a public meeting is being held at the city hall this afternoon for the purpose of doing honor to the memory of the late Gen. M. W. Ransom. Mr. W. C. Troy was called to the chair and Messrs. C. G. Rose and L. B. Hale were asked to act as secretaries. A committee has just been appointed to draft suitable resolutions, as follows: Messrs. J. G. Shaw, A. H. Slocomb and J. H. Myrover, and are engaged in this work as we go to press."
